Spiritual Horizons

The school year of 1983-84 saw the expansion of the campus ministry program. New sophomore days of prayer brought added opportunities for spiritual growth. A new highlight of the year became the Senior Mass, a liturgy for seniors of all the Catholic high schools in the Sacramento diocese. For the event, Bishop Quinn joined the seniors at Blessed Sacrament Cathedral.

Traditional events continued to stimulate spiritual growth: the Mass of the Holy Spirit, offered by Bishop Quinn; the family Communion Breakfast at the Carmichael Elks Club; senior and junior retreats; freshman days of prayer; prayer groups; and Liturgy Workshop, which provided music for the student Masses.

In these ways, Jesuit has fostered the spiritual awareness of its students. By experiencing a common devotion to their faith, Jesuit students have felt a sense of belonging. At the same time, through spiritual growth, they have found meaning in individuality and self-worth.

Branching Out

Jesuit has always placed a high value on academic excellence, and, in this tradition, Jesuit students consistently exceed the classroom achievements of most students their age. This academic emphasis is reflected in the requirements for graduation, which, in most areas, exceed those required by the University of California. Though oftentimes straining under a heavy workload, Jesuit students show their achievements in standard tests, boasting S.A.T. scores that pass the national and California averages, and in the number of students receiving college credit for work done during the junior and senior years.

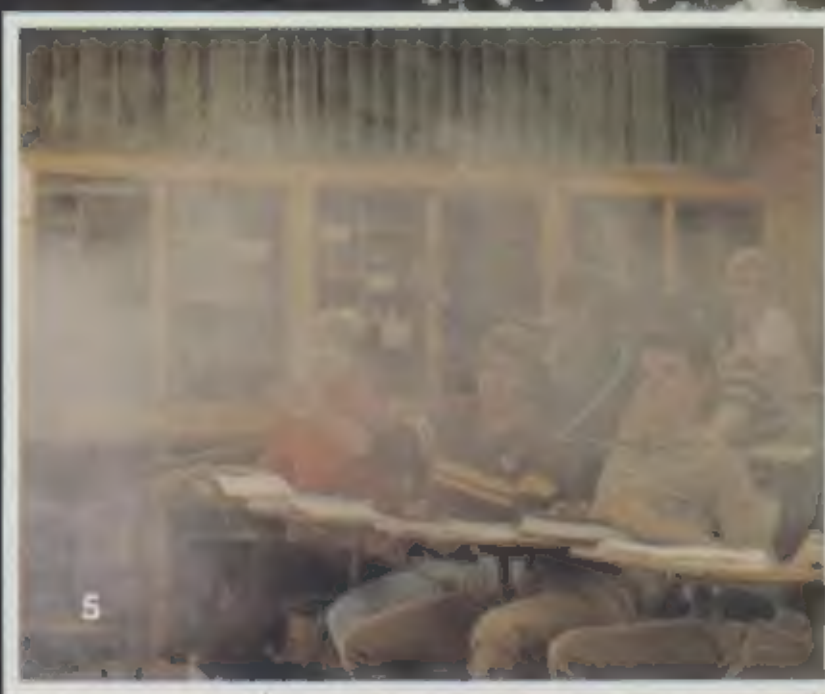

Designed as a college preparatory curriculum, the academic program most clearly demonstrates its success in the number and quality of colleges to which Jesuit students are admitted. Each year more than 95% of the graduating class will attend college the following autumn.

More important, though, than all the statistics on scores and admissions is the attitude brought to study and learning at Jesuit. Intellectual talents are seen as gifts of God that are to be developed for the good of the entire community. Talent then is seen as a responsibility and not as a boast. The development of that talent is for the greater service which can then be done one's neighbor. A development of gifts in the service of others is the goal of Jesuit education.

1. Mr. Tim Warren (American Lit.) recounts his life story to Wally Gallaway. 2. Junior American Lit. class along with their mascot. 3. Lloyd Day - chemistry experiment guinea pig. 4. Tim French and company study vocabulary in a junior English class. 5. Chemistry students watch as Fr. Stout demonstrates how invisible gases can be seen. 6. Senior theology teacher, Mr. Paul [unclear] renders the meaning of life. 7. Mr. [unclear] articulates to his class the finer points of mass-donain problems.

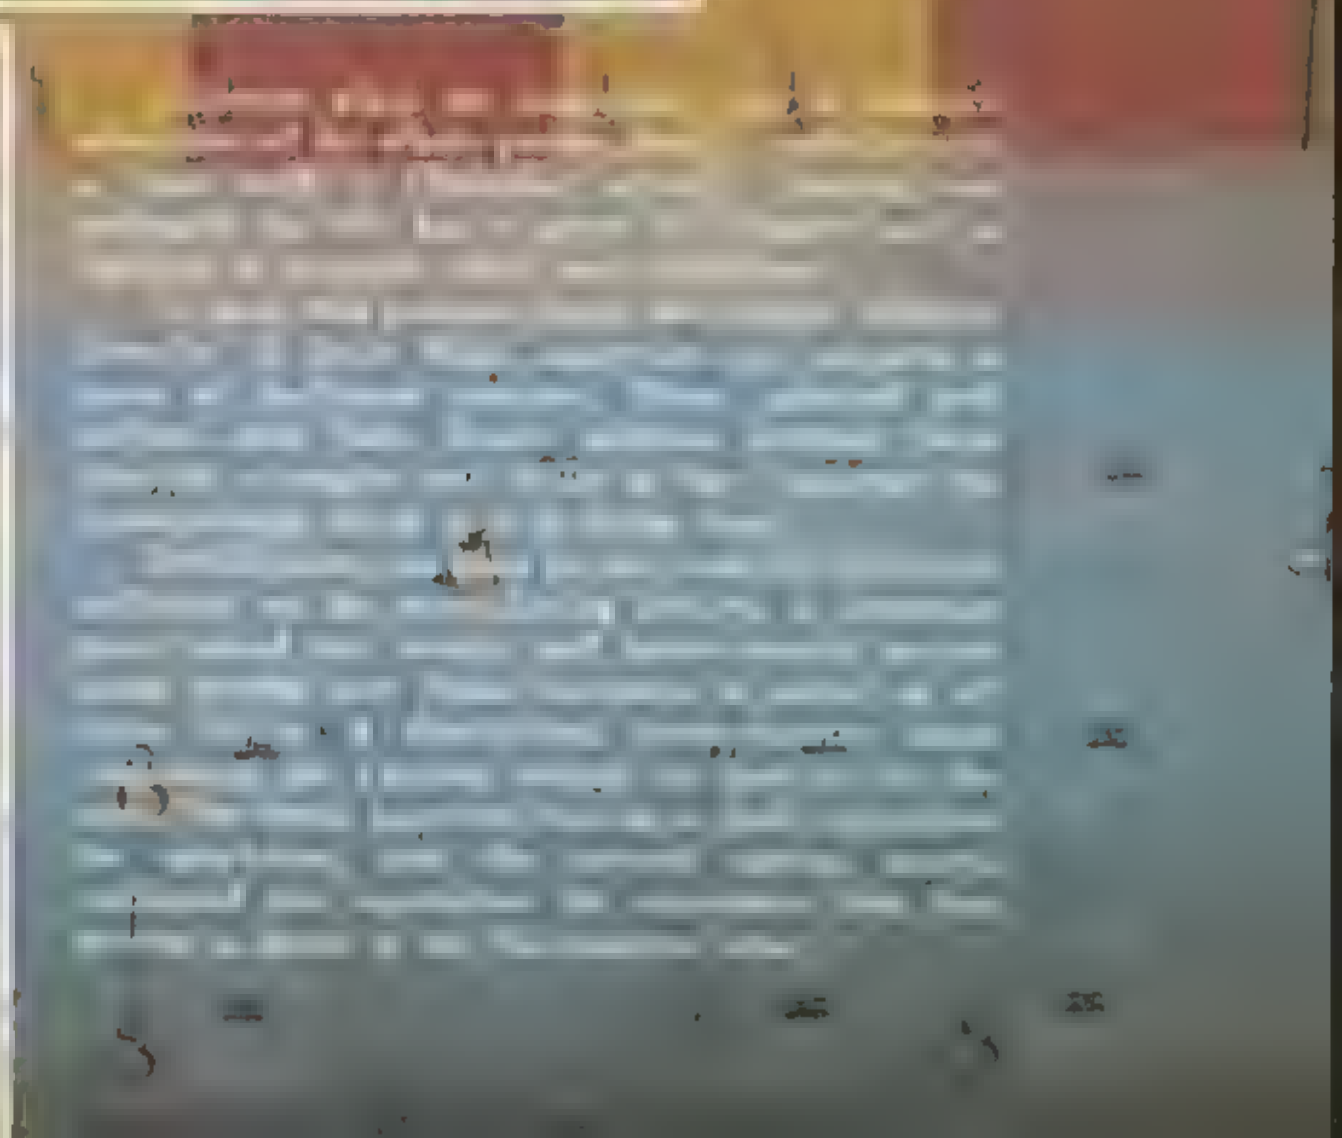

1. Freshmen at work during P.E. 2. Kevin Donovan and John Steiner prepare to rush the faculty during the senior/faculty football game. 3. JESUIT'S HEART

Large brick buildings, a majestic bell tower, and acres of plush, green campus — all beautiful, but not Jesuit. Jesuit High School is made excellent by the people that form its community. An ordinary high-school career spans a four-year period of time, but at Jesuit the four-year experience is much more than a period of time; it is a passage of growth. The students, parents, faculty, and friends all contribute to the vitality and excellence that mark Jesuit High. We are neither a place nor an institution, but a people.

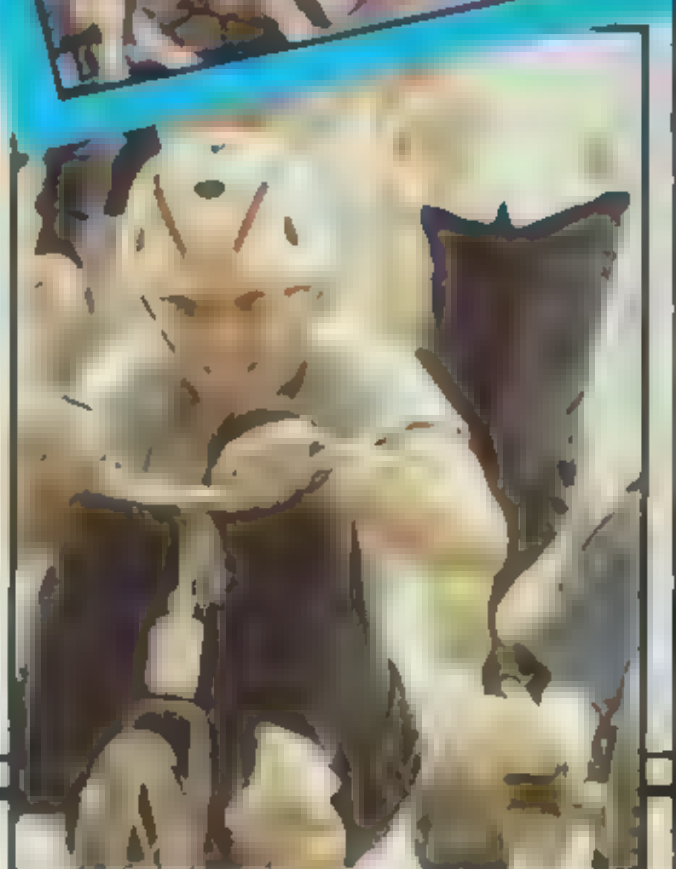

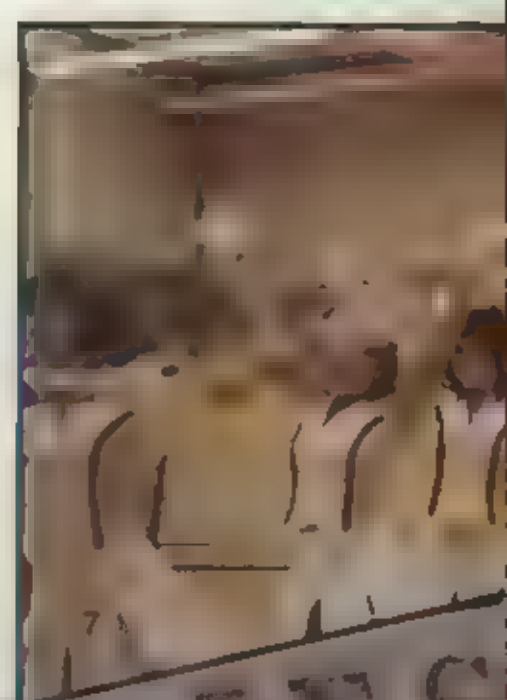

1. Roy Jacobs ponders the thought of jumping into junior year. 2. Dave Steinbauer feeling crisp and clean with no caffeine in the cheering section of a football game. 3. Junior John Nolan catches those last few lines of literature before his English class. 4. "Can't you walk any faster, Dad?" complains a future Marauder to one of the Jesuit Boosters. 5. Little Miss Edwards, daughter of our associate principal, is easily the winner of the cutest dimples award. 6. John Steiner entertains the crowd at the first mini-rally at the amphitheater — an innovation by this year's cheerleaders.

"ARE YOU READY?"

At the beginning of the year, the students of the school were asked to write a letter to the principal. The letters were read aloud to the whole school. The principal was very moved by the letters and decided to do something about them. He decided to start a new program for the students. The program was called "Are You Ready?"

The program was designed to help the students learn how to deal with stress and anxiety. It was a very successful program and the students loved it. The principal was very proud of the students and their teachers. He decided to make the program a permanent part of the school curriculum. The program was a great success and the students were very happy. The principal was very proud of the students and their teachers. Run for the Bucs!

The first annual Jesuit Fun Run was a successful and joyous affair. With an earning of over twelve-thousand dollars, Jesuit was able to add to its operating fund money needed to support the entire school. Parents and friends helped during the event. The Booster Club worked on course checkpoints and with food sales. Many trustees assisted by working and even running. The jogging time lasted from 10 to 12:30. Along with 150 students ran ten teachers. The Loretto Drill Team, football highlights in the A.V. room, and the Jesuit Pep Band highlighted the day's entertainment

1. Junior runners stagger towards their goal. 2. The K-108 beaver shows up for the start. 3. Roger Roux paces himself for a long run. 4. A Loretto Drill Team member directs traffic. 5. Father Whitten and Mike Saumure congratulate one another after completing the run. 6. Marty "the foot" Smith can't choose which cup to take on his way to posting the most laps completed record. 7. The "stride gang" takes its time. 8. Colin Frisbie gives his friend a lift. 9. Mr. Lehman gives all he has as he leads the pack throughout the first six laps. 10. Tom Griffin leads a group of runners around the far post.

ACTIVITIES

Cutlass Staff Tours City

From Fair Oaks to Old Sacramento, the 1984 Cutlass Staff did it all. Their first excursion took them to the old Sunrise Bridge to make the set for the cover photo. After many takes, run-ins with park rangers, and large audiences, the picture was completed, and the crew prepared for their next journey. On a rainy November day, Editor-in-Chief Marty Holbus led his crew to William Land Park and Old Sacramento to take the staff picture. After visiting the Sacramento Zoo, the staff invaded Old Sac to take an old fashioned photo.

Although often on the road, the yearbook staff found time to produce the 1984 Cutlass. The hard work and leadership of Marty Holbus, with assistance from moderator Mr. Mike Weiler S.J., resulted in this, the twentieth volume of the Cutlass. Marty had a fine supporting cast, led by Patrick Cox (Managing Editor) and Clark Geurts (Darkroom Editor). The layout and copy were supplied by Dave Scholtz, Stanford Goto, Kevin Keller, Wally Gallaway, Chad Taylor, Brian Quirk, and Jeff Thorne, who also contributed fine artwork. Photographers Matt Kuhlman, Karl Hanf, Dave Wolf, and Greg Solomon submitted excellent photos with help from freelancers Scott White and George Johnson.

The Jesuit

The Plank is news to us

The Plank speaks for itself. Under the direction of Mr. Wilson Kerby, and the leadership of Editor Barton Fisher, Jesuit's monthly tabloid has taken strides to improve its readership on campus. With the assistance of Managing Editor Ed Trafton, Sports Editor Mark Ekstrom, and People Editor Matt Coward, the paper is quickly approaching its goal of journalistic excellence. A new sense of readership and respect has led the staff through its demanding deadlines and long work sessions. With such efforts, the Plank has attained a position among Jesuit's best publications.

Seniors Reach Out and Give

Serving soup at the Catholic Worker Center; helping the handicapped and retarded at Easter Seals, McClaskeys, and Starr King; working with special interest children at St. Patrick's Orphanage, Diogenes Youth Service, Folsom Prison Day Care Unit, and the Indian Bi-Cultural Center — free-time occupations for seniors? "Community Service" sounds like a reform program for parolees, but it is far from this. In fact, this project is an opportunity for seniors to experience unique environments while giving of themselves. Requiring fifty hours, this work project calls on the student to perform a charitable service for a community organization. While requiring exceptional dedication and perseverance, these projects return to the seniors a view of life they probably would not normally experience. More importantly, these projects give to participating students a strong sense of accomplishment and pride.

COMMUNITY SERVICE PROGRAM

Monkskateers

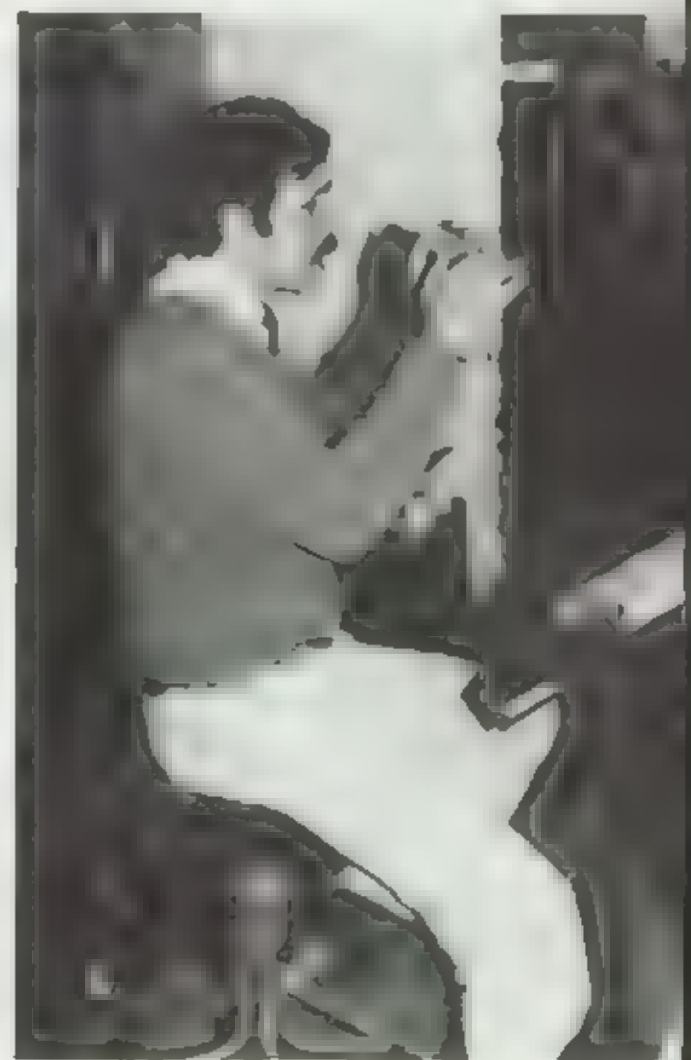

The success of the many bands this year can be attributed to the fine quality of leadership provided by Mr. John Monks and Ed Trafton. Mr. Monks gave strong support to every musician without any exception.

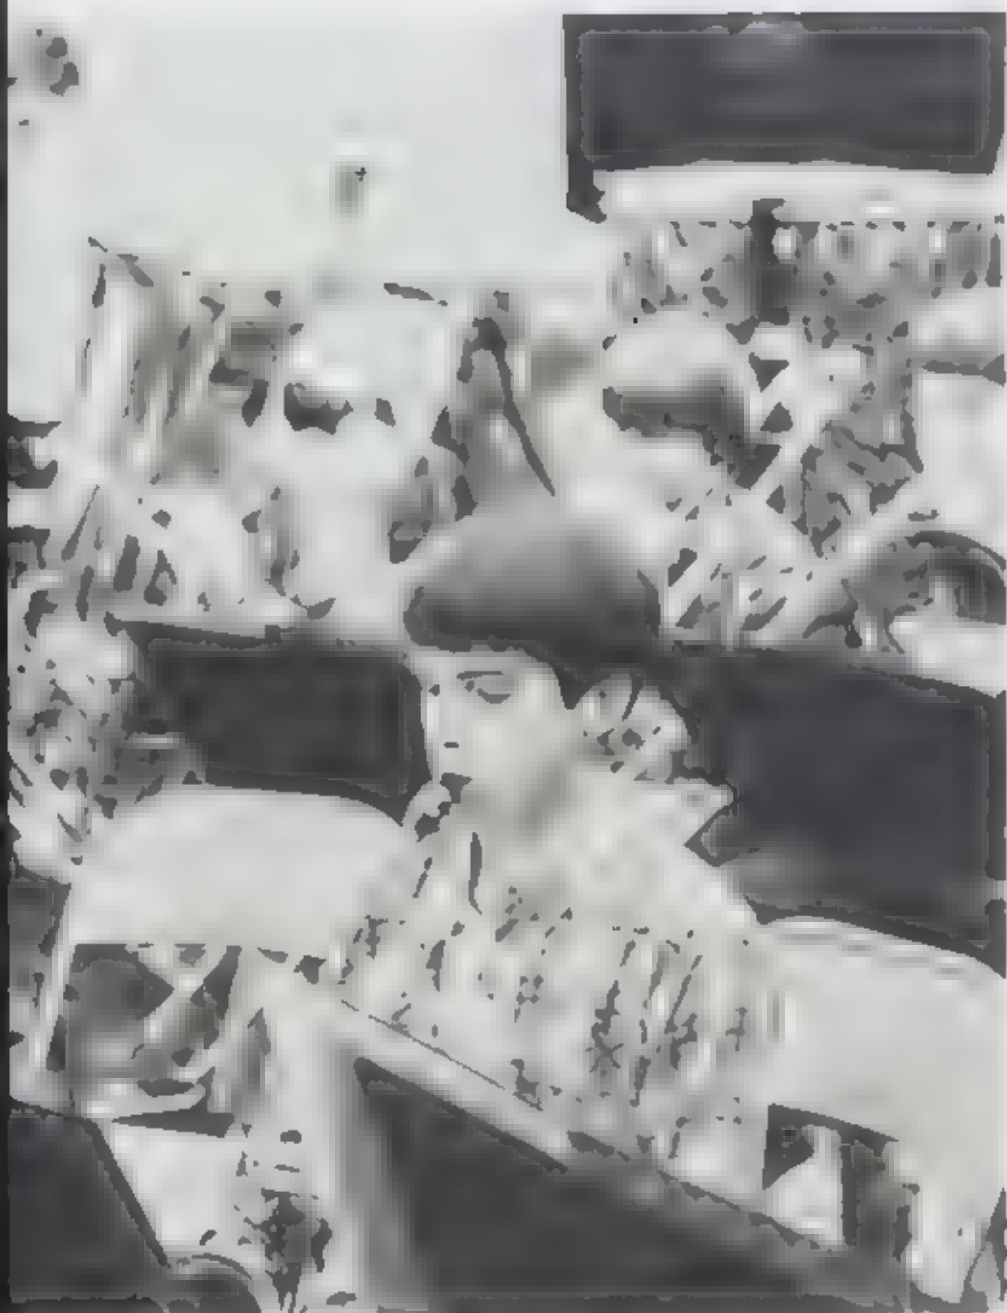

Senior Ed Trafton, who is a gifted pianist, directs the Pep Band with wildly swinging arms and an ear for precision.

This year's band, consisting of the Stage Band, Concert Band, Beginning Band, Symphonic Band, and Pep Band exerted a pride that shined through in their many concerts at Jesuit, and in a remarkable performance during the Golden Empire Music Festival.

A very talented group of musicians made up the 1984 bands. However, there are always those who stand out even among the best. The bands are especially strengthened by the talents of Steve Nagy on trumpet; Ted Angelo on sax; Scott Santarosa on drums; and Marty Eggers on piano.

When the band was asked how successful their year had been, they replied modestly, "Quite, but there is still room for improvement."

Bonjour,

Burritos, pandulce, and crepes... Does Jesuit have a new cafeteria? No, it's the language clubs. Not only do they provide fantastic foods for the student body, but a chance for language buffs to meet and socialize.

Guten Tag,

Adios...

28,000 LBS.!!!

Jesuit High School showed its giving spirit this Christmas by bringing in 28,000 pounds of food, doubling the desired goal. Mr. McGuire and Mr. Edwards, heading up the event, were kept very busy. The food was given to Operation Cratchett, who, in turn, distributed the food to needy families of the Sacramento area. A second truck was needed to carry the excess weight brought in by the Jesuit students. This year's food drive was indeed a success, and, although the senior class won by bringing in the most food, the classes of '85, '86, and '87 are looking forward to another Christmas of giving.

1. Brian Quirk's Lumpmobile (also known as the U.S.S. FIRENZA) was loaded down with Junior Class grapefruit. 2. "... not more than 15,000 pounds," said Mayflower, "Better send another then," answered Mr. Edwards, "because it has 22,000 already, and more is coming!!" 3. John Gisla grabs a snack while in line with food donations. 4. Dave Wolf's face reflects the school's excitement in the last few days as the records are shattered. 5. A Proud Society

Block "J" is a club which serves Jesuit High School with pride. The purpose of the society is to provide volunteer aid opportunities for its members. Some of the major projects for the students to help with are to provide tour guides for Open House, work on technical crews during the Spring Fling, and usher at campus events. This year's officers are president; Matt Coward, Vice-President; Barry Gonzales, and Secretary, Barney Yannacone. Mr. McGuire is the acting moderator for this year's club. Block "J" is a successful service existing for the Jesuit High School Community.

"We the People . . ."

This year's student government, once again moderated by Mr. Fritz Kehrwald, was a big success. As Student Body President, senior Garen Horst, assisted by his fellow officers, displayed a fine job of leadership. Although the main focus this year was on accreditation, the activities most prominent on the minds of seniors were the senior-class trips to Disneyland and to Hawaii, and the holding of the Senior Ball on a boat in the delta.

Other groups deserving of mention are the class officers and the student court. Congratulations to the Student Government for a job well done.

Jesuit Aids Community With Blood Drive

November 28, 1983 — a day that will live in infamy. Yes, on this date, Jesuit, along with the Sacramento Medical Foundation Blood Bank, sponsored the first Jesuit Blood Drive. Students, faculty, and parents flocked to the Jesuit Little Theater and donated fifty-three units (pints) of blood. The administration and the Associated Students of Jesuit High School hope to make this worthy event an annual occurrence at Jesuit.

Math Club Really Counts!

The Math Club is under the supervision of Mr. Frisbie and Mr. King, and competes with other schools on the second Wednesday of every month. In addition, members travel to San Luis Obispo every April to participate in a statewide competition sponsored by Cal Poly. Contrary to popular belief, the Math Club is not just another mindless task — it is a way of life

All the world's a stage ... This fall, Jesuit successfully produced another masterpiece under the direction of Mr. Ed Fassett, S.J. With a talented cast of 35, Mr. Fassett again proved that there is hope for the struggling fine arts here at Jesuit.

The actors themselves hailed from Del Campo, Lorretto, St. Francis, and good ol' J-High. The story centers around an egotistical, self-centered Sheridan Whiteside, who reluctantly agrees to have dinner at the quiet home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stanley. The trouble starts when the international celebrity slips on the Stanley's doorstep and breaks his hip, confining him to bed for two weeks. Joe Rombold, quite convincing in the role of Whiteside, charmed the audience with his dry humor and witty insults. Whiteside's entourage of famous friends further upsets the household. From the zany Professor Metz, played by Kevin Keller; to the flamboyant Beverly Carlton, a British actor magnificently portrayed by Chad Taylor; to the beautiful and intelligent secretary, Maggie Cutler, portrayed by Lisa Praxel, the cast of characters was quite entertaining. Other outstanding performers included Sharon Bohnen, Alicia Paintner, Mike Pipe, Brendan Murphy, and Tony Rao. Overall, this play was a tremendous success

Forum Brings Down the House

Directed by Mr. Ed Fassett, S.J., this spring's musical comedy "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum" was another success. Featuring the talents of such prominent Jesuit thespians as Ed Trafton, Kevin Keller, Sam Schwartz, Mano Sekaran and Brigham Hausman, the show was very well executed. The cast, which also included Dave Scholtz, Karaleen Bors, Sharon Bohnen and Brendan Murphy, showed how well a cast can do with 12 weeks of rehearsals behind them. Altogether the show was hilarious and well worth seeing.

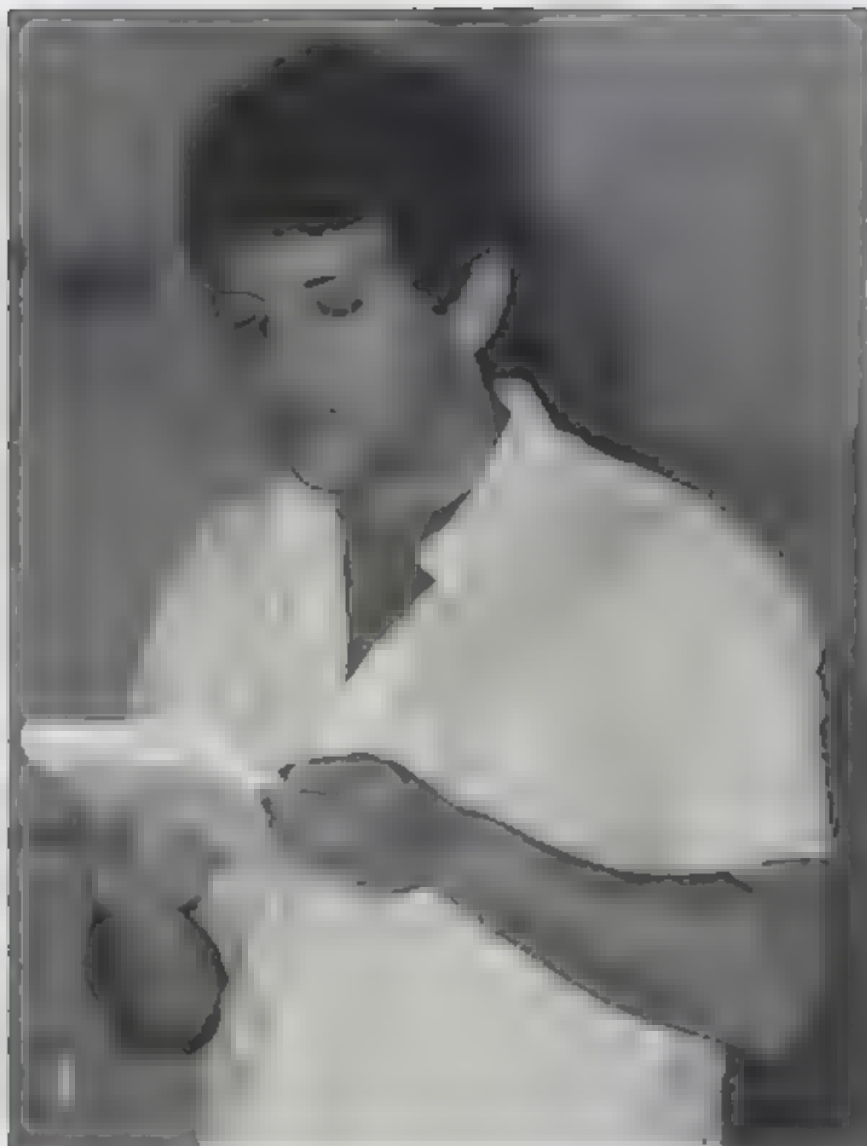

The story centers around a young boy (Brigham Hausman) and his slave Pseudolus (Ed Trafton) in their attempts to get a beautiful courtesan named Philia (Sharon Bohnen) away from Miles Gloriosus (Dave Scholtz), a Roman soldier who has brought her. As a solution, Hysterium, the slave-in-chief (Kevin Keller) disguises himself as Philia and pretends to be dead. After this plan fails, all looks lost until it is revealed that Philia and Miles are actually brother and sister. All of the parts were played well and with an abundance of creativity.

MISSION: Spirit ASSIGNED TO: Galley Crew

"Members of the 1983/84 Galley Crew, this is your leader. This mission, should you choose to accept it, involves rallying Jesuit's spirit to heights unknown to other schools. You will work closely with special sections: Poster Children and Skit Crew. With the support of the student body, you will succeed. Your code word will be 'mojo' and I will be in constant contact with you. Should you choose not to accept the mission, this school will self-destruct."

Young Harriers Leave 'Em In The Dust

This year, Jesuit's freshman and sophomore cross country teams were quite successful, winning such meets as the Nevada Union Invitational, and Delta League meets at Gibson Ranch and Ancil Hoffman park. Outstanding performers included sophomores Mike Basinet, Lloyd Connelly, and Ken Kundargi, and freshmen Mike Parrott, Matt Piper (who led the freshman team in many meets), and John Vicain, who constantly improved his times.

In The Words

Wonderful, great, fantastic, marvelous, fabulous, swell ... even the most tired of them all, awesome. These are the words which describe Jesuit's varsity cross-country team. Under the excellent supervision of Supercoach Walt Lange, the varsity successfully dominated all of Northern California, establishing themselves as a major cross-country power. And they were indeed powerful, winning such meets as the Crystal Springs Invitational in Belmont, the Clovis Invitational in Fresno, and the prestigious Mt. SAC Invitational in Los Angeles. The team really started to emerge at Mt. SAC, where the Jesuit Harriers took first place, much to the delight of Walt Lange. By going on to win League Championships, Sac-Joaquin Sub-sections, and Sections, the team got pretty confident. This must have helped, because two weeks later, they won the Northern California Championships at Sierra College. The top seven men were seniors Rod Grieve, Dick Vicain, and Ian MacArthur; sophomores Jim Thomas, and Mark and Eric Mastalir; and that fabulous freshman, Paul Thomas. Other varsity runners were seniors Todd Bass, Ken Cottrell, Lawrence Kundargi, and Tony Varanini; and juniors Garrett Martin, Bruce McGagin (who improved considerably over last year), Tom Baldwin, Chad Taylor (injured early in the season), Phil Bodem, Mike Kelley, Matt Kinder, Ken Sumner, Carlos Roscoe, and Greg Ebling. Although the team will lose three of its top seven men to "old age," the Mastalirs and the Thomases will be back, and this year's juniors will definitely take up the slack. Mr. Lange has had a memorable season with this team, and is hoping for another great one next year.

J.V.'s Eat Up The Field

The J.V. soccer team had an outstanding year. Finishing second to Elk Grove, the Marauders went on to the Bella Vista Tournament to make another impressive showing. Jesuit scored decisively against Bella Vista, Nevada Union, and Elk Grove, but in the finals, lost to Del Campo.

The leading J.V. scorers in the 83 season included Dan Benedict and Shawn Dunn, this year's most valuable player. Joe Dougherty was named Goalie of the Year, and Pete Stember received the distinction of Most Valuable Player. Finally, Dave Novak, holding the team together in good times and bad, proved to be the team's most inspirational player.

Varsity Soccer: To The T.O.C.!

The Varsity Soccer Team did not let us down this year. In fact, the team had one of its best seasons in years. They completed the year with an overall record of twelve wins, five losses, and one tie. Their league record was even more impressive with seven wins, two losses, and one tie, placing them second in the Delta League. Consequently, the team went to the T.O.C. The high point of the season came with a four to zero victory over Galt. In the next round, Jesuit lost a very hard fought match against the team from Tracy in triple overtime.

The team was comprised seven seniors, ten juniors and one sophomore. Jesuit's Varsity also fielded five All-League players including Charlie Blim, Bret Parlante, Todd Ray, Morgan Taylor, and Steve Verloo. All-League Honorable Mention goes to Karl Hanf and Rick Price. Morgan Taylor led the team in goals scored with seventeen, followed by Todd Ray with eleven goals, and Steve Verloo and David Warmerdam each with five goals. During the course of the season, Karl Hanf recorded four shut-outs. The defensive standouts were Charlie Blim, Jeff Hawkins, Kevin McGoldrick, Rick Price, and Todd Tietsort. Mark Ekstrom, Mike Farrell, and Dirk Sauer also provided outstanding performances.

From the looks of things, Coach Paul Rose has a lot to look forward to next year. We will all be awaiting the year to come. Jesuit Soccer has lived up to the Jesuit tradition of being AWESOME!

Frosh Football Reaches for New Heights

This year's Freshman Football team was once again quite large. Consisting of 72 members, this year's team showed good spirit and determination. The coaching staff this season was an excellent combination of wisdom and insight. Coach Frisbie and Coach Meyers made up the older, wiser part of the coaching team, while rookie Coach Wachowicz provided new insight into the coaching technique.

Success Ends Drought

With the goal of restoring a winning tradition to Jesuit football, the 1983 Varsity finished with a 6-4 record, the first winning season since 1977, and missed the Section playoffs by one game. A consistent, reliable offensive line led by Jason Brenzel, Scott Sackett, and All-League guard Garen Horst, provided QB Chris Bagateles with plenty of time to pass, which he converted into a record breaking 1473 yards passing. Bagateles' favorite target, All-League receiver Brian Ternan, caught 28 passes, including a record breaking 83 yarder in the Holy Bowl. When Bagateles was not passing the ball, All-League fullback Dave Scholtz was carrying it for 504 yards and a school record, 14 touchdowns.

Defensively, All-City linebacker Dave Scholtz (104 tackles, 4 int.) teamed with Garen Horst (66 tackles) to head a tenacious linebacking unit. The line, paced by All-Leaguer Dave Novotny, Jason Brenzel, and junior Steve Reiml, constantly pressured opposing quarterbacks, while defensive backs Kurt Baer (4 int.) and Tony Barsotti harassed opposing receivers.

Head Coach Dan Carmazzi, and his assistant coaches, Mark Warren, George Harper, and Vic Bertolani, deserve to be congratulated for leading the Varsity through such a successful and exciting season.

Coach Tom Shakely guided another talented group of sophomores this year. The team was led by high scorer Tim Cocker with eleven points per game and playmaker Will Baer. Steve Hillegeist led the team in rebounds. Defense was headed by Kevin Sims and Will Baer. Mike Anderson and Tim Cocker were named All Tournament players at the Ponderosa Tourney.

The team handed number-one ranked Valley their only loss during the season. With only three league losses in the league and an overall 20-6 record, the team provided an action packed season. Finally, the team took an outstanding second place in the Delta League.

Varsity Ties Davis

Jesuit's Marauders, led by All League Tim Marchi (17 points per game) finished the 1983-84 season with a 7-6 record, tying Davis for 2nd place in the Delta League. After a loss to Davis in the playoffs, Jesuit took the 3rd seat in the TOC.

With Senior players Doug "inside moves" Dal Cielo and center Tom Griffin (7 rebounds per game), and Junior standouts Jay Haro and John Nolan, the Marauders made their way through a tough season. After an opening game loss to Highlands, Jesuit came back to win three in a row. With a strong defense led by point guard Tim Anderson (HM All League) and Pat Bagley, Jesuit was able to produce exciting comeback victories against Valley, Elk Grove, and Davis. The 9 man rotation, finished off by Kurt Baer and Jim Corkill, led the team to an overall 14-14 record and a fourth consecutive trip to the TOC. Senior Pat McCarthy, unfortunately, missed his best season because of a knee injury. As for the Marauders, their efforts culminated a fine season.

Linksters Show Promise

The 1984 season saw notable changes in the Jesuit Varsity Golf Team. Pre-season running and weight conditioning aided coach Mr. Mike McIntee in guiding his team to success in the Detla League.

Leading juniors David Carr and Rich Wilks testify that golf is no country-club sport for Marauders; the team plays hard and set its goal: the Nor-Cal Championships.

Advantage:

Love it that is about the only way to describe this year's tennis squad. With strong pre-league play by returning juniors Marc Spitz and Jerome David this team is assured success. Two new tennis players are sophomore Hunter Gallaway, barring eligibility problems, and freshman Mike Viani; both look promising and will add depth to the team. Veteran players should ease rookie moderator Mr. Paul Seishas through his first season with the team.

Title Wave

"The potential is there," these are the words of Co-Coach Brother Farrington concerning this year's swim team and its chances of gaining another section title. Assisting Brother Farrington is Jeff Walkuski who also agrees that the team has a possibility of becoming champions again. Returning to the squad this year is All-American Chris Bagatelos providing strong support to his teammates. The Juniors offer their experience from previous years of swimming competition. From the Sophomore class, Russ Granger and Mike Anderson strengthen the team with their natural ability. The Freshmen provide Jon Candy, an outstanding young swimmer.

The unity of this year's team is very strong. Each individual is of equal importance in supplying team support. The first meet of the season began well with a First-place win in the Christian Brothers/Sacramento City College invitational. Another strong record is expected this year.

Freshman Baseball

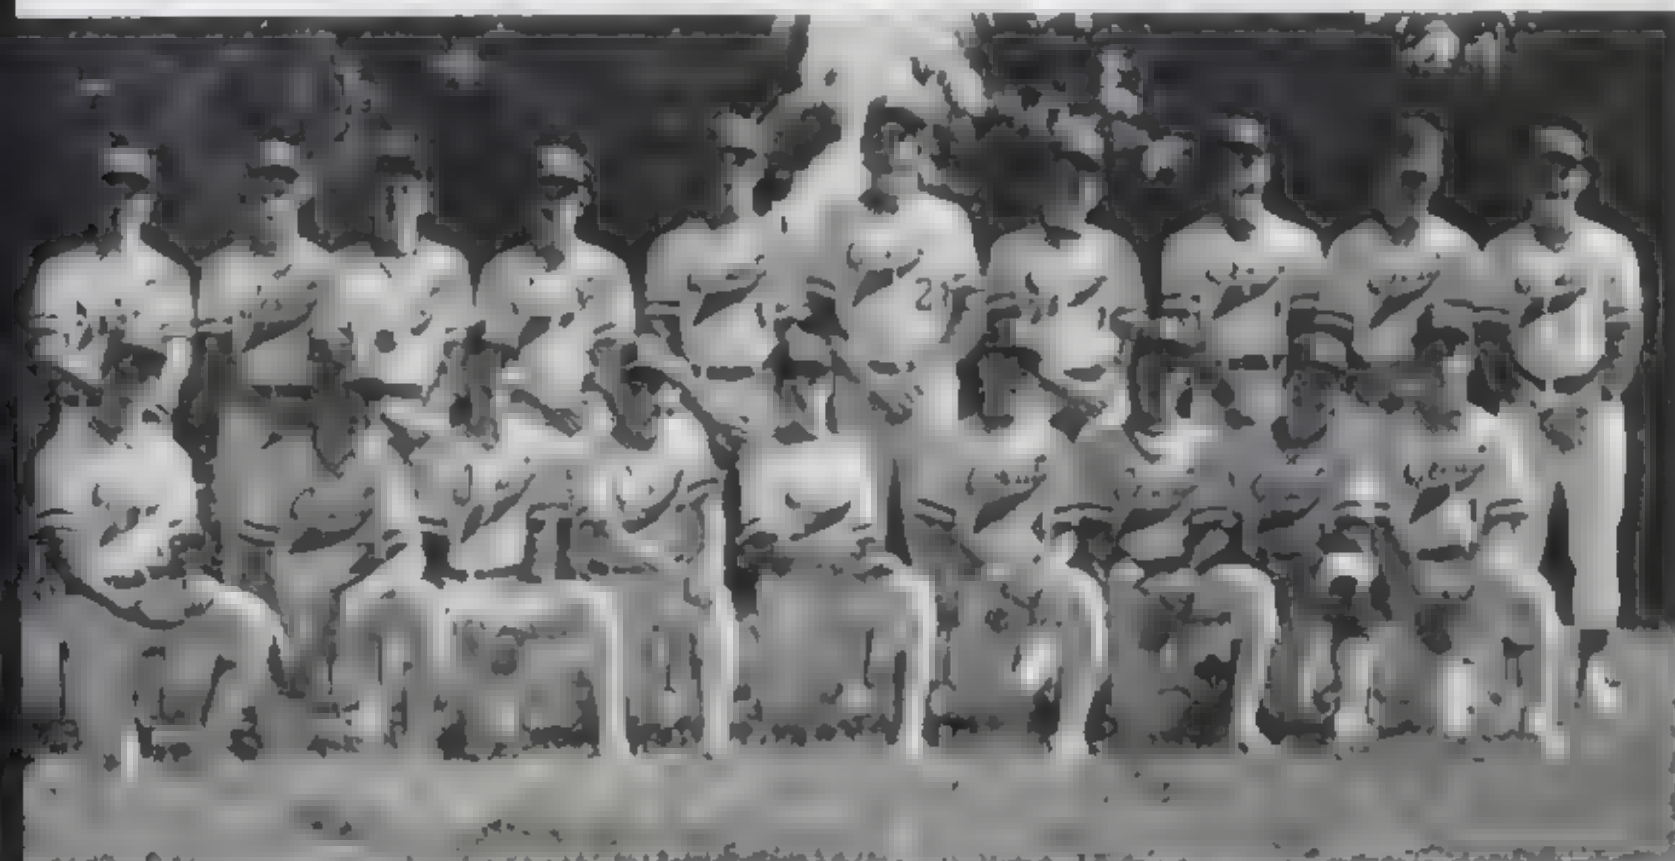

This year's freshman baseball team was coached by rookie Jesuit teacher Jim Richardson. The team got off to a good start, and appeared as if they would continue to do well for the remainder of the season. Some of the players worthy of honorable mention were Jamie Coulter, Matt Heffernan, Sean Noriega and John Parker. A highlight of the season was a last-minute victory in the last inning against Christian Brothers. On a hit by Eric Rapp, the team scored three runs and came from behind to win the game. In the words of coach Jim Richardson, "They are a good solid team, and they have the ability to win."

JV's Smoke and Thunder

The Sophomore team came out hitting this year after capturing the Delta League title in 83. The team jumped to a very strong start this season. The JV's had a powerful pitching staff led by Jeff Nuxoll, John Rathfon and Bill Griffin. Coming off the bench to relieve was Todd Rahimi. The tight infield was anchored by shortstop Jack Woodside and Todd Rahimi on first base. The hitting ranks were led by Will Baer (.600) and Mike Novotny (.590). Speed around the bases came from John Kindrick and Al Lemerande. Mike Novotny was behind the plate constantly gunning down baserunners

Marauders: Big Hit In Delta

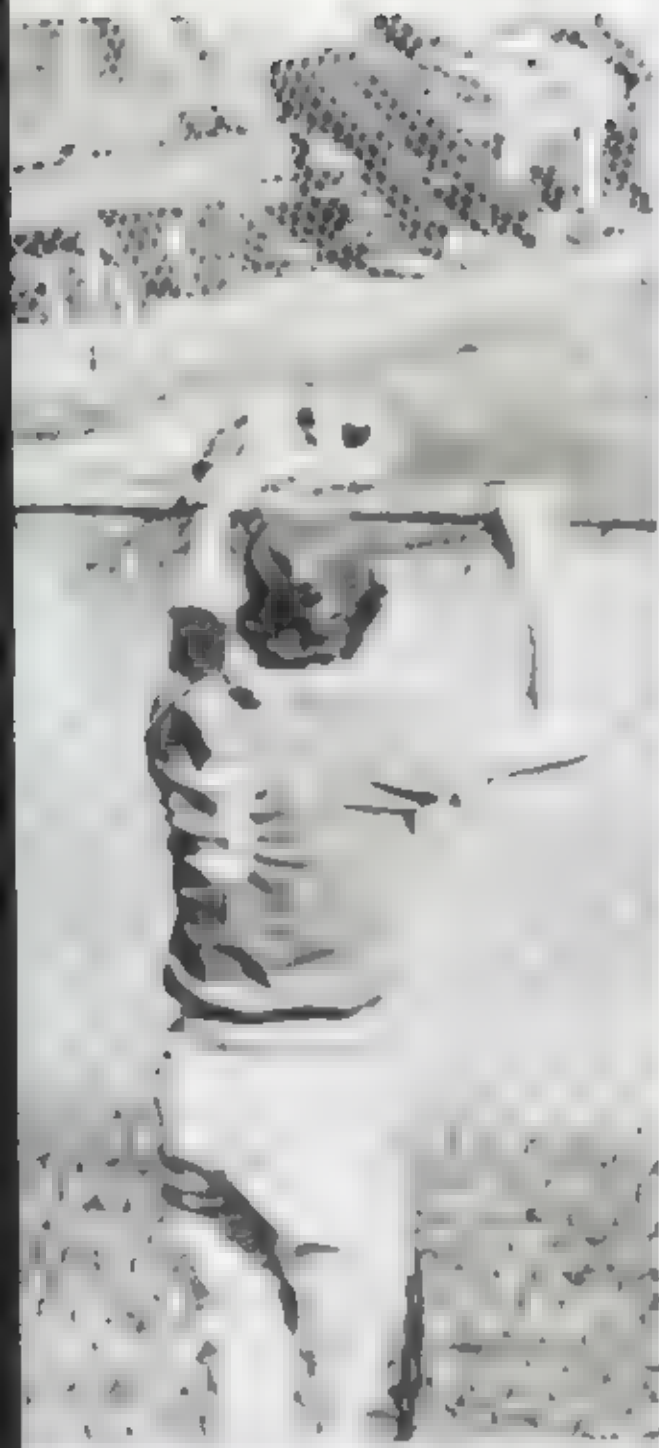

First year head coach Gerry Campos forseees a bright debut season, in which the team will defend its Delta League title. Señor Campos steps into the head coaching position after four years as the varsity assistant coach, and skipping the j.v. team last year

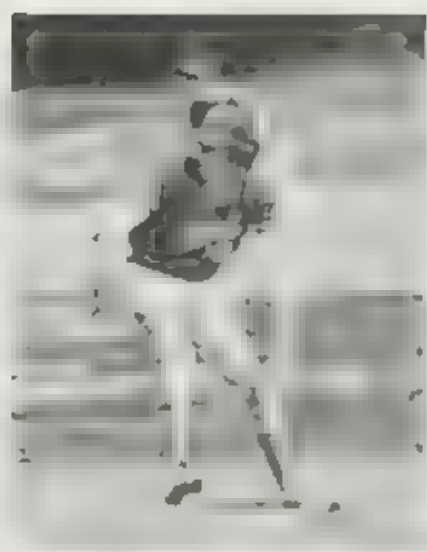

Picked to finish first in the Delta League by The Sacramento Bee and ranked fourth in the city by The Sacramento Union, the Marauders enter the '84 season with a veteran club which consists of six returning seniors in the starting lineup, including All-Leaguer Matt Aguilera, who led the league with a .409 batting average as a junior. Tabbed a defensive wizard at shortstop by the Bee, Tim Anderson hopes to "improve on last year's .325 average and help the team win the section."

Other key returnees are pitcher/third baseman Mike Sanborn, ace pitcher Jerry Nielsen, and centerfielder Art Mikel. Juniors Mike Musolino and Tony Coss will strengthen the batting order, while Ron Martinelli and Jeff Dorricott will aid by pitching.

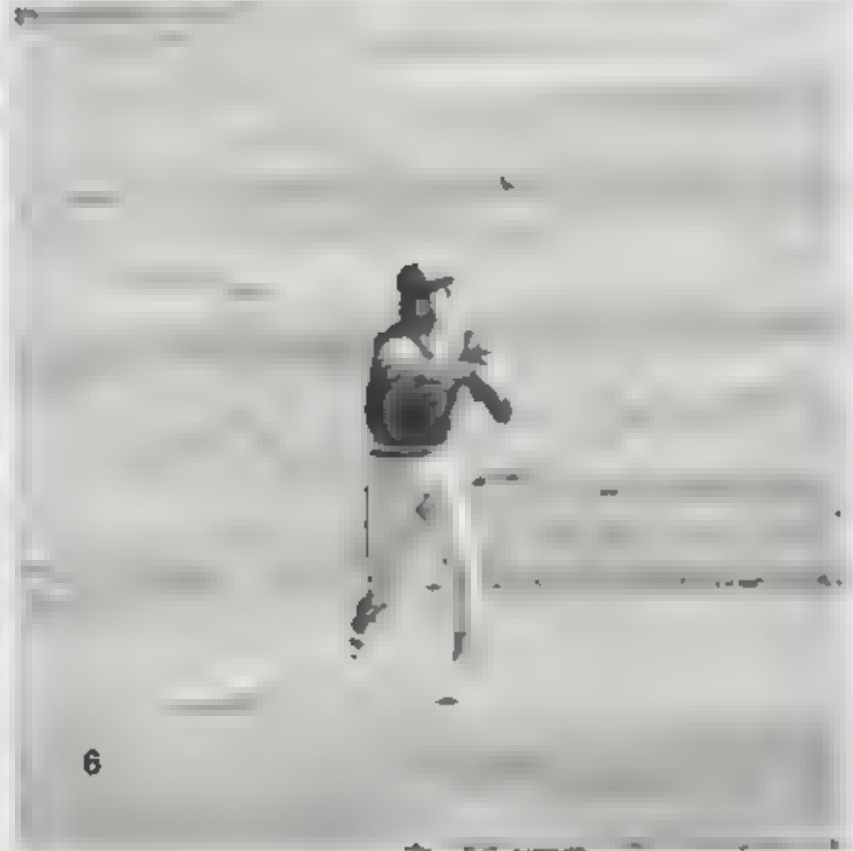

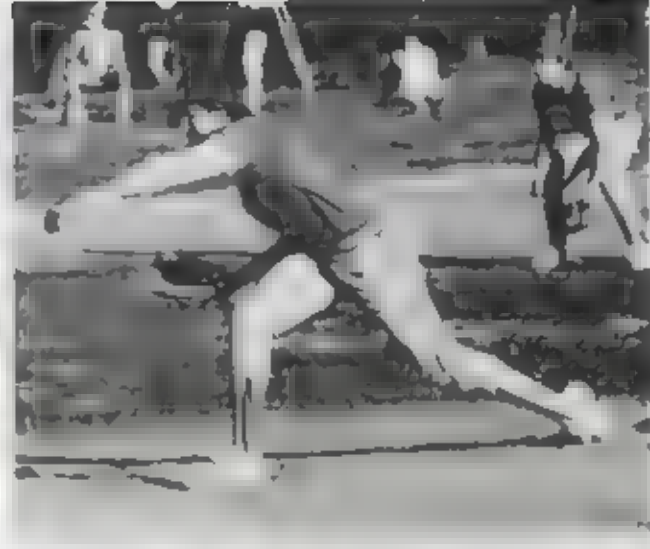

1) Art Mikel and the bench await the pitch. 2) Jesuit's "brew crew" keeps busy tallying Marauder runs. 3) Matt Aguilera completes a routine play. 4) The bench 'enthusiastically' cheers on teammates.

Varsity Track — certainly no spring chickens! Once again, the mighty Lango army grouped together to form a frightening track team. With over one hundred athletes, the Varsity team had a tremendous variety of talent. "Depth is what makes us great," said middle distancer Marty Holbus. The tracksters launched a fantastic season with a victory over the dreaded Christian Brothers Falcons, who struggled in vain against the Red Brick Wall, only to fall flat on their backs. Outstanding long distance performers included the terrible twosome: Mark and Eric Mustard, Rod Gervase, David Buss, Ian MacArthur and Dick Venn (ugh Dick! The 880 was dominated by Andy Birdwell and Bob Day. Our field men were led by Garren Black, Horst Chris, Madman Madden, Alex Stretch, Mortloch, Steve Underman and pole vaulters Pat Cox and Jeff "Jump" Hawkins. April fourth brought victory to the Varsity when they beat Ames by 11 points and Hayes by 12 points, capturing the Delta League. Yes, 1984 was indeed an outstanding season for the Lango Lubbers.

JV's: All-Out Effort

The '84 track season produced a formidable JV track team whose strengths lie in exceptionally talented individuals and in sheer numbers.

Sophomore Kevin Sims and freshman Dan Cahill ran strong in sprinting events, notably the 440 relay. A multi-talented athlete, Cahill also performed well in the high jump. Other valuable tracksters included Dave Warmerdam and Mike Basinet who proved their worth in long jumps and sprints. A notable long distance runner, Paul Thomas ran considerably well in the 880, mile, and two mile. John Pogacar, a sophomore, earned the reputation of number one weight man. Matt Stott, Dave Reynolds, and Bill Trainor also were valuable assets to the weight team.

The quantity of participants also boosted the effectiveness of the team. This year's sprinting team became a very legitimate force. The large number of tracksters gave the team depth- the ability to score high in point totals by taking multiple places.

1. Kevin Sims absorbed in concentration. 2. Paul Thomas proves himself as an excellent distance runner. 3. Lloyd Connelly pushes for a second wind. 4. Dan Baskin and Dan Cahill run notably well in the 440.

Passages

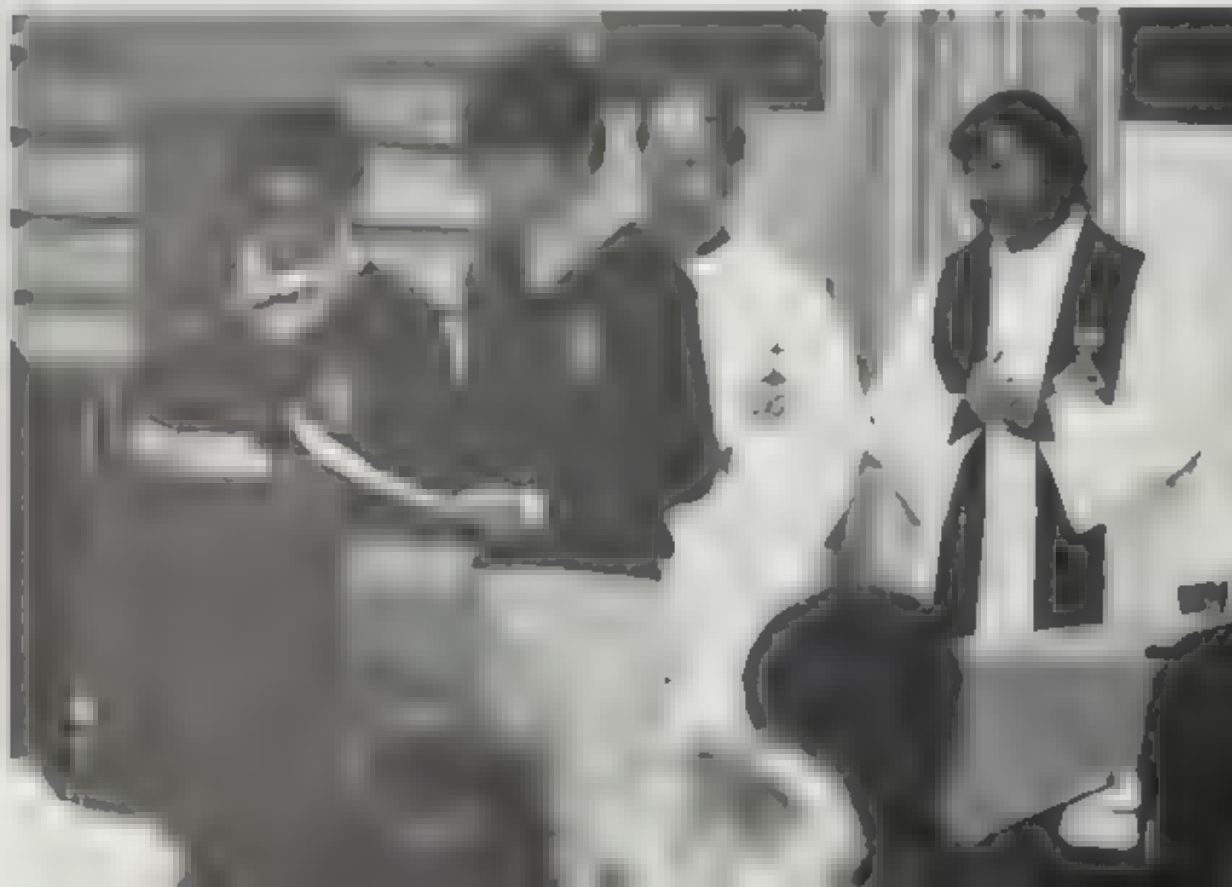

The Jesuit High School graduate is rapidly approaching young adulthood. The movement from childhood toward adulthood has involved physical, emotional, intellectual, and spiritual development. This transition may have also involved anxiety, embarrassment, and tentative first steps into sexual identity, independence, love and work. During the four years prior to graduation, the adolescent has begun to realize that he can do some things well, sometimes very well, but there have also been failures and disappointments. All of these experiences have helped the student mature...

—taken from
A Portrait of the Graduate at Graduation

...the Jesuit student moves through many passages. This movement involves every aspect of the person. He struggles and sometimes falls in the darkness of his passage. But with his own strength of character and the light of the Jesuit community to guide him he continues on.

The Senior Class has reached the end of its passage and now faces many choices. Their thoughts of their own Jesuit passages recall words like spirit and Big Red Pride and feelings like charity and responsibility.

This year's Cutlass portrays the year against a backdrop of external passages. It stands as a reminder of the individual student's particular passage.
